FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ARTHUR SEWALL
OF MAINE.

WHY JONES AND NEWLANDS
SHOULD BE RETURNED.

The following from the Elko Independent will commend itself to every citizen of the State who is not bawling the prosperity of the commonwealth for a place at the public crib and shrieking for the gold trust that thirt may follow treachery:

"The importance of the result of the Presidential contest to the people of Nevada cannot be over-estimated. Upon it depends in a great measure the future prosperity of the State. If the principles for which William J. Bryan stands are endorsed at the polls on the 3d of next month, Nevada will enter upon a career of unexampled prosperity. The sound of the hammer as it strikes the steel will be heard in many of her deserted mining camps and the clatter and din of the now idle quartz mills will make merry music as they pound and crush the ore now hidden deep in her mountains. The waste places of the State will fill up with a prosperous, happy and contented people. The rancher in her valleys no longer discouraged by the lack of a home market for the products of the farm will till the soil with renewed energy. The peal of the school and the church bell will be heard in many places where now the solitude is only broken by the yelp of the coyote. The people will take on new life and the busy hum of industry will be heard in the remotest corner of the State. On the other hand if the flag of the gold trust waves triumphantly over the nation the deeper will be the gloom now resting on our State.

"As important as the general result will be to the people of Nevada, there are local matters of vast import to be decided by them on the 3d of next month. One of these is the election of a Legislature that will choose a successor to Senator John P. Jones and another is the election of a member of Congress to succeed the Hon. Francis G. Newlands.

"Senator Jones by his unwavering support of the paramount interests of Nevada has endeared himself to her people, irrespective of party, and deserves to be returned to the Senate to succeed himself. If the cause of the people should meet with defeat in November, there will be need of true and staunch defenders of the white metal on the floor of the Senate. Brave, earnest men who do not fear the lash of ridicule and the sneers and taunts of the sleek, well fed millionaires will be needed to withstand the further assaults of organized wealth on the rights of the common people.

"Such a man is John P. Jones, the senior United States Senator from Nevada. His great learning on financial questions and his untiring zeal in behalf of the white metal, has made him a leader in the fight for the restoration of silver to the place it occupied as a money metal prior to 1873. In him the gold trust find their greatest opponent. His keen logic and unanswerable arguments have more than once routed them in discussion. They fear him as they do no other man on the floor of the Senate. His triumphant re-election would be a fitting response of Nevada to his efforts on behalf of silver. His defeat would give the lie to our professions and be the cause of great rejoicing to the enemies of our State.

"Nevada should prove true to her senior Senator, and return him to the Senate Chamber to continue the fight for silver and humanity.

"Hon. Francis G. Newlands has served the people faithfully for two terms as their representative in Congress. He has gallantly held up the hands of our Senators and been with them in the thickest of the fight for the white metal. He has carefully looked after the interests of the State, besides devoting a great deal of time and money to the cause of bimetalism. He is a free coinage man because he believes in the justice of the cause.

"As the money question will be the greatest question before the next Congress, Nevada's Representative should be one whose grasp of the subject would enable him to deal with it in all of its complications. Such a man is Francis G. Newlands. His record is clean, and the voters of the State should see to it that he is again returned to Congress. The Independent will support him because it believes in the free coinage of silver, and for the further reason that his services in that cause entitle him to the support of every voter in the State who advocates free silver."

A CANDIDATE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR.

It is currently reported that Judge Bigelow will be the candidate of the gold Republicans of Nevada for United States Senator. Judge Bigelow, who indorsed free coinage platforms every year that he was a candidate, and, so far as the public knew, believed in free coinage until Mr. Hanna declared against it, is the logical candidate of the party which has, in a few months, repudiated the pledges which it had been giving to the public for years. Mr. Cleveland of White Pine, early in the year, was favorably mentioned by the Republicans for United States Senator, but he believed in the recoinage of silver, as the convention which elected him a delegate to the St. Louis Convention pretended to do, and he left the convention with Senator Teller and other Republicans, when it declared against free coinage. As the party could not countenance men who adhered to the principles which it had been advocating for years, it repudiated Mr. Cleveland because he would not repudiate silver and Judge Bigelow becomes its candidate for the United States Senatorship.

McKINLEY A CHANGELING.

Senator Teller of Colorado addressed a meeting at Akron, Ohio, last Wednesday. A letter was read by General Finley, written by Major McKinley to E. S. Perkins of Weymouth, Medina county, Ohio, in the fall of 1890, in which he said:

"I have always been in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of the silver product of the United States, and have so voted on at least two occasions during the time I have been in public life." Mr. Perkins was at that time a member of the Ohio Legislature and Major McKinley was a member of Congress. When asked what he had to say about the published letter said to have been written by him to Mr. Perkins, he replied that if it was a true copy of the original it doubtless expressed his views at the time.

If Mr. McKinley can change his opinion on a question that had been discussed for years and on which he had positive convictions, simply because Mr. Hanna desired him to do so, what guarantee has his supporters that he will not be a rampant free trader within three months?

To show the appreciation in the purchasing power of gold the Ogden Standard says that if $1,000 in gold coin had been buried in an old tin can in 1873, and exhumed in 1896, it would be found to have earned 4 percent interest every year in property, common wages or every day necessities of life.

This Atlantic coast, has been visited by the heaviest winds experienced in years. The gale lasted only a few hours but it did great damage to property in Maryland and Pennsylvania and in Georgia, it developed into a regular cyclone.

THE WRIGHT IRRIGATION LAW.

Capitalists Combining to Repeal It. SAN DIEGO, Cal., October 1.—The officers of the Linda Vista and other irrigation districts of this country are much exercised over an alleged combination being formed to lobby for the repeal of the Wright Irrigation Act in the next Legislature. A prominent officer of the Linda Vista District said this morning that he had gained positive knowledge of a scheme on the part of Chicago, New York and San Francisco capitalists to have the Wright law knocked out, in case the Supreme Court held it valid. It is said that the combination being formed to repeal the Wright Act, if successful, will thereby have an opportunity to secure control by private companies of valuable water rights and other property, now controlled by district organizations. The syndicate is said to have millions behind it and as prepared to develop more important systems in Southern California if it can beat the Wright law.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD WRECK.

The Crews of Two Trains Killed. PITTSBURG, October 1.—The worst wreck in the history of the Baltimore & Ohio occurred early this morning, when two fast freight trains collided at Philson. The crew of the east-bound train lost control on a down grade, and the trains collided at a high rate of speed. All of both train crews were killed, besides four men stealing a ride. Thirty-four cars loaded with coal are piled up on the track. The debris is as high as the telegraph wires. Traffic is entirely suspended.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Bryan addressed a large crowd at the fair grounds at Clarksburg, West Va., yesterday, and was enthusiastically cheered.

Mrs. Frazier, a bride of four days, shot herself through the heart at Cairo, Ill. She and her husband were prominent in church and social circles.

Captain Reuben F. Kolb, the father of the Populist party in Alabama and editor of the People's Tribune, the Populist organ, has come out for Bryan and Sewall.

No trains are moving on the Canadian Pacific except between Montreal and Toronto. Rumors of a sympathetic strike and also of a compromise are in circulation.

The Miners' Union at Leadville having decided at a regular meeting to continue the strike, two hundred of the members withdrew from the union and will seek work.

The Massachusetts Republican State Convention yesterday nominated Roger Wolcott for Governor. He has been acting Governor since the death of Governor Greenhalge.

The Spreckles sugar refinery at Philadelphia, operated by the sugar trust has closed down in consequence of the dull times, throwing about 800 men out of employment.

The fiftieth anniversary of the admission of Iowa to Statehood, is being celebrated at Burlington. There are many visitors from all parts of the State and the festivities will last a week.

The Philadelphia American, edited by Wharton Barker, the banker, calls upon Sewall and Watson to withdraw in the interest of the election of Bryan and let the National Committee name a candidate who will be acceptable to all interests.

Staunton, Virginia, was flooded yesterday, by the breaking of the banks of the Fair Ground lake. The bodies of James Smith, wife, daughter and grandchild, have been recovered from the waters. The negro quarter was in line of the torrent, but it is believed all the inhabitants escaped.

The Republican State Central Committee of California decided in favor of the Curry-Grimming-Spreckles faction, and the Spear-Kelley-Mahoney faction, which is recognized by the National Committee as the Republican party of San Francisco will apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing Registrar Hinton to place the names of their candidates on the ticket under the Republican heading, and failing in this will have the names put on by petition.

William Brown, who made a business of rolling drunks in San Francisco, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny. He was trapped by a fisherman who pretended to be drunk. He showed Brown some money and laid down as if he was going to sleep. Brown proceeded to rob him, but when he attempted to withdraw his hand from the fisherman's pocket he was caught by fish hooks which had been sewed in the cloth. Brown was arrested and the hooks had to be cut out of his hand.

The Pacific Mail steamship Chioia, from Hongkong and Yokohama, arrived in San Francisco two days ahead of time, having broken the record. The run from Yokohama to Honolulu was made in nine days, ten hours and eleven minutes, and the run from Honolulu to San Francisco was made in five days, eight hours and twenty-five minutes. The Chioia brings news of the robbery at Shanghai of the Paymaster of the United States cruiser Boston of $1,122 by two able seamen, who escaped but were afterwards captured.

C. F. McGlashan has withdrawn from the Congressional race in the Second California District. He publishes a letter in the Sacramento Bee in which he severely scores the Populist State Central Committee and intimates that it is working to secure the election of Grove L. Johnson, the Republican candidate. He says to the committee: "If my fighting qualities have embarrassed you, console yourselves with the fact that they have also embarrassed Grove Johnson. Marion De Vries, the railroad company, Huntington and the Roman Catholic hierarchy."

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

THE IDEAL PANACEA.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal panacea for coughs, colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave such a speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

A Chance for Carson.

Robt. O'Neill has challenged any Carson bike rider to race him a series of three races on Saturday for a $50 medal. Up to the hour of going to press, the challenge had not been accepted. The News has yapped considerably about the Carson boys being jobbed at the late fair, etc., and have also said that there was lots of "talk, talk, talk" but no show down, and that Carson could make any kind of a race for money. Here is a chance, and if O'Neill loses, he won't make any cry about it, but will make the head fellow think the devil is behind him.

Rambler's Won at Carson.

Racers won five of the six bicycle races at Carson Wednesday. Roy Richard, a 15-year-old boy, made best time in a mile race, running away from a field of strong men riders who were mounted on other makes of wheels. A tandem team which had twice been defeated, mounted a Rambler tandem and defeated the same opponents. Can there be any doubt as to the speed qualities of Rambler's?

Bryan Medallions.

There are a few medallions of William J. Bryan at this office which those who like a good picture of the people's candidate for President are invited to call and get.

School Shoes.

Tassell Brothers have a large and fine assortment of shoes for school children which parents are invited to call and inspect as they are being sold at a very low rate.

ORMSBY DISTRICT FAIR.

Fourth Day—Biggest Crowd Yet, and Still Bigger Promised To-Morrow. Lively and Satisfactory Racing Events.

A lovelier day was never invented or allowed, and the general population with an army of interested friends from outside and everywhere came promenade down to the fair grounds and race track. The grand stand was crowded with ladies, children and families, and the sportive lords of creation rambled up and down the grounds in front, attending to the various games and general amusements peculiar to the occasion.

The pool box showed exceedingly well, and luck favored sundry Comstock friends, as well as a Carsonite or two. Anyhow, everybody had a jolly good time, with no disagreeable incidents whatever to trouble the general enjoyment. The race drivers and jockeys were all on their good behavior, consequently there was no kicking and penalties.

The first was a half mile running dash won by Durango in 49 seconds; Mackey second and Dewdrop third. A very lively and pleasing race.

Second came the chief event of the day, a trotting race, mile heats, three in five. First heat won by General Logan in 2:25; Mamie F second. Second heat won by Mamie F in 2:26; Lottie right close in. Third heat won by Mamie F in 2:24; Lottie close second. Fourth heat won by Lottie G in 2:22; Mamie a very close second. Fifth heat and race won by Mamie F in 2:24. Great interest was manifested by everybody in this race, and numerous American silver dollars changed hands on the result, also a corresponding amount of "yellow money."

In the closing of the day's festivities came a three-eighths mile running dash, six entries, won by Iron Heart in 37 seconds; Susie D second and Todhunter third.

Two more races were on the program but had to be deferred till to-morrow, when a still livelier and more attractive racing and other general entertainment is arranged and which nobody should miss.

Among the numerous interested outsiders and enjoying participants to-day were Al White and a couple of dozen others from Reno. Superintendent Joe Ryan and quite a crowd from the Comstock, and Hon. Fred Pangberg and neighboring ranchers from up the valley. Most of to-day's visitors remain over to see the fun to-morrow and probably the rest of the week.

ALP DOTTEN.

Married Life in Reno.

Mrs. Carrie Clarke Ward will present this side-splitting comedy at McKinley's Opera House on Saturday evening, October 10th. She will be assisted by local talent and an enjoyable evening is promised. In the earlier days of Reno Mrs. Ward appeared in a number of performances that were of local interest, and since that time she has played here several times with various combinations. She is an actress of merit and has a wide reputation. A number of her friends in Reno have persuaded her to head a local combination in a home play and the many good hits and incidents taken from happenings in and about Reno, will create a world of amusement without giving the slightest offense.

The prices have been fixed at a popular figure and seats will be on sale immediately at Charlie Lake's.

There will doubtless be a crowded house and it is hoped that this little lady, who is really a Nevada, will be given a rousing reception at her first appearance here for many years.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Steble, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1. Get a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned takes this method of tendering his sincere thanks to the good citizens of Reno, who so kindly attended his brother, the late Matthew Welch, during his illness, and in performing the last sad rites of humanity.

MARTIN P. WELCH.

RENO, Oct. 1, 1896.

Mrs. B. E. Hunter is the busy woman who has in less than four years, here in Reno, sold Thirteen Thousand Seven Hundred dollars worth of Viavi remedies. The reason so much has been sold is simply because they are the grandest remedies in the world and will not fail to cure if used as recommended. Gentlemen who have stomach troubles, come and get some of our Viavi, you will never regret it. Any person who is ill, come and see if we have not a remedy that will cure you.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of our worthy townsman, C. D. Van Duzer, to Miss Nelle Dane Webster of Cynthiana, Kentucky, is announced. The engagement is the outcome of a romantic courtship, and Van's many friends will extend him and his future wife their best wishes. Miss Webster is one of Kentucky's fairest daughters, and a member of one of the oldest families of the Blue Grass State. It is said that she fully sustains Kentucky's reputation for handsome women, and her charming manner and lovable disposition doubtless compares with her Nevada sisters, otherwise she would not have won Van. While Nevadans have some slight objections to young ladies of other States capturing our young men, Miss Webster is to be congratulated on her good judgment, and it is suggested that if she has any big brothers she might send them over here for our girls and kind of equalize matters. It is hardly necessary to introduce Van in his own State. He has lived here nearly all his life, and is known by nearly everyone. At present he is Nevada's able Land Attorney at Washington, and his past four years' service in that capacity speaks volumes in his favor as a prompt and efficient officer. He will be showered with congratulations on his good fortune and there will be no limit to the wishes for his happiness.

The wedding will take place on November 18th at the young lady's home in Kentucky, and she may be assured that when she comes to Nevada as Mrs. Van Duzer she will be accorded a hearty welcome.

Not Out.

"Hello! Is this your bank?" said Dinwiddie to Van Duzer, who was making out a deposit slip at a desk in a Fifth Avenue banking establishment. "No," replied Van Duzer. "This isn't my bank."

Dinwiddie seemed surprised, for he could see Van Duzer's bankbook, with several checks and some money, when the latter added:

"No, it is not my bank. I wish it were. I am merely a depositor here."—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

A Health Resort.

The healthfulness of Lynton, a summer resort in Devon, England, is advertised by this story:

Recently a visitor began to talk to an old man at Lynton and asked him his age, whereupon he said, "I am just over 70."

"Well," said the visitor, "you look as if you had a good many years to live yet. At what age did your father die?"

"Father died?" said the man, looking surprised. "Father isn't dead. He's up stairs' putting the washstand to bed."—Bristol.

EDISON'S NEW WONDERS.

His Latest Telephone and Phonograph Are Marvelous.

Edison's latest inventions, which have been shown to no one but the man who helped him build them, comprise an improved telephone and a perfected phonograph. The latter has been Edison's dream for years, and it has only been completed recently. The phonograph works without the scraping sound which is now audible in the instrument, and the tone of the sound which it takes is reproduced with the utmost accuracy. If a tenor or a soprano sings into the new phonograph, the person who hears the song from the phonograph receives as much enjoyment as if he had listened to the song in person. But one of these instruments has been made, and it is in very rough form. It was tried the other night at Orange in Edison's house and worked perfectly, though the sound was transmitted through five miles of wire.

The telephone is a marvel of convenience to the busy man. The instrument is placed on the wall, near the desk, as at present. It is automatically arranged, so that when the bell rings all the man at the desk has to do is turn his head a little and ejaculate, "Hello!" Then, still sitting at his desk and without teaching or going near the instrument, he carries on the conversation. There is no trouble about taking down the receiver and screwing it to your ear or going through any of the maneuvers which are now necessary. The conversation with a man 1,000 miles away is carried on as easily as if he were in a chair by your side. The voice which comes from the telephone is distinctly audible to the person by whom it is intended that it should be heard, but does not fill the room.

The phonograph, on the other hand, when brought into action, fills the room with sound. By means of this instrument Melba can sing to a million persons at once. It is so perfected that the sound will pass over as many miles as desired. She can, for instance, sing to an immense audience in New York at the Metropolitan Opera House. Phonographs may also be connected with Washington, Boston, Philadelphia and St. Louis, and if Edison's assertions are correct, big audiences there can hear her voice as well as those in New York. These are the machines which Li Kiang Chang will examine at Niagara. He will be the first person to whom they will be exhibited, and such will be presumed to him to take back to China with him.—New York Herald.

AN EGYPTIAN PRIZE.

A world-famous five thousand-year-old Egyptian mummy, the latest prize of the Cairo Museum, has been sent to the University of Chicago.

One of the five known oldest boats in the world has been added to the treasures of the Field Columbian museum in Chicago. It is a small boat, in the transportation department, having been shipped only a few weeks ago from the Gizeh Museum of Antiquity at Cairo.

The museum is indebted to the liberality of Mrs. Ursula H. Macdonald for the prize. Egyptologists assert it was in use at least 4,500 years ago, being contemporaneous with the Duxbury pyramid of the eleventh dynasty.

These five ancient boats were found together recently, buried at a considerable depth, near the great pyramid. The regular order in which they were arranged led to the belief that they had been purposely buried after having been used in transporting objects of other materials for the embalming of royal persons.

The boats were of cedar and were found in good condition, only about one-fifth of the wood having succumbed to decay. The oars had disappeared, but a piece of one of the rudders was obtained for the Field museum.

It required eight men to carry each of the three boats that have so far been moved to the bank of the Nile. The remaining two are still in the neighborhood where they were found, and two are still in the Gizeh museum.

Mrs. Macdonald was one of a party of Chicagoans in Cairo when the ancient boats arrived, and as soon as it was known the Egyptian government could be induced to part with one bought it for the Field museum.

ANCIENT SALIC LAW.

IT PREVENTS WOMEN FROM BEING QUEENS IN SOME COUNTRIES.

No Other Law Has Caused So Much Bloodshed—Through This Code the Kingdom of Hanover Lost Its Independence and Was Absorbed by Prussia.

A relic of prehistoric barbarism, of times when women were regarded as scoundrel beings but one removed superior to the brute creation, is that Salic law which debars the fair sex from all rights of succession to most of the thrones of Europe. No one knows with any degree of certainty the origin of this law, although many theories and arguments have been advanced regarding it, yet there is no law that has been the cause of so much bloodshed and desolation throughout the last 800 years.

Nearly all the historic wars that have taken place in Europe since the days of the first crusade may be attributed to the existence of this law, and even in the present century sanguinary struggles have taken place on its account. Great Britain and Russia are the only two countries where it has never secured any foothold.

Spain, Portugal and Holland have within the last 100 years erased the law from their statute books, and have benefited by the change, while since the reign of Maria Theresa and the seven years' war it exists only in a modified form in Austria, and, perhaps, not at all in the kingdom of Hungary.

But it is still in force in Denmark, Sweden, in Prussia and all the other feudal states of the German empire, as well as in Belgium, Italy, Roumania, Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece, the national constitution of which, being of a more modern character and drawn up by enlightened statesmen of the present century, might reasonably be expected to be more up to date and free from such narrow medieval prejudices and doctrines.

It is precisely in the three countries which are now ruled by women—England, Holland and Spain—that the greatest degree of peace and prosperity prevails, the three royal widows displaying far more common sense and enlightened statesmanship and political acumen than any of their brother monarchs.

Under the circumstances it must be a matter of regret that the Salic law should debar a number of beautiful, charming and clever princesses from succeeding to thrones. Thus there is the pretty Princess Pauline of Wurtemberg, the only child of the present king and a young girl whom it is no exaggeration to describe as the national idol.

Yet, notwithstanding the fact that all the affection of the people is centered in her, she is compelled by the Salic law to stand aside and to permit her father's crown to descend to a distant cousin, born and bred not in Wurtemberg, but in Austria, and who, in addition to being regarded as a foreigner, has the supreme disadvantage, in the eyes of the Lutherans and Protestants, constituting the vast majority of the nation, of being a Catholic.

Although King Oscar of Norway is one of the most enlightened and accomplished of men, endowed with a character that can only be described as unblemished, he has not proved a successful ruler.

The fact is that the king, in spite of all his talents and his perfections, moral and otherwise, is entirely wanting in that personal magnetism, and, if I may be permitted to coin the expression, that public tact which distinguished his nephew, genial and by no means so intellectual brother, King Charles XV.
The latter had only one daughter, Princess Louise, who inherited his qualities, and who, in spite of her plainness, was just as much the idol of both the Norwegians and Swedes as Princess Pauline of Wurtemberg is at Stuttgart.
Over six feet high, and far from being endowed with intellect above the average, she possesses the best temper in the world and an inexhaustible fund of merit and good humor, and a heart as big as her laugh, which has been compared to that of a horse.

Had she been permitted to succeed her father as queen regent of Sweden and Norway it is doubtful whether the present conflict in the sister kingdom would ever have arrived at the acute stage, and certainly the loyalty to the throne on both sides of the border would not have reached its present low ebb.
But, being debarred from her father's throne by the Salic law, she married the crown prince of Denmark, carrying out of the country of her birth all the vast wealth which she had inherited, partly from her father, and partly, too, from her Danish grandaunt, which is estimated at $5,000,000.

As to the Salic law that the kingdom of Hanover is indebted for the loss of its independence and for its absorption by Prussia, with all the disadvantages which that entails, economic, political and social. Had Queen Victoria not been barred by this statute from succeeding to the throne of Hanover at the time when she ascended that of Great Britain there is no doubt that Hanover would have been enjoying at the present moment the same commercial prosperity and manifold advantages which have fallen to the lot of the English since the beginning of the Victorian era.

But instead the Salic law made necessary the separation of the crown of Hanover from that of England, and it passed in 1837, not to Victoria, but to the Duke of Cumberland. His very first act on succeeding to the throne was to repudiate the grant of all the popular liberties conceded by his younger brother, the Duke of Cambridge, who had been acting as viceroy, and until 1836 Hanover, although free from the obligation of compulsory military service and unhindered by any Prussian restrictions upon trade, remained a hotbed of feudalism and one of the most retrograde states in Europe.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

DELICACIES OF GREENLAND.

Whalekin Is Considered a Great Gastro-nomic Luxury.

Greenlanders have no regular mealtimes, but eat when they are hungry.
They seem able to go without food for a remarkably long period and also to eat at a sitting the most astonishing quantity. Among their principal dainties is the skin of different kinds of whales. They call it matak, and look upon it as the acme of deliciousness. It is taken off with the layer of blubber next to it and is eaten raw without ceremony. An arctic explorer, in his recent work, declares that he must offer the Eskimo his sincerest congratulations on the invention of the dish.

"I can assure you—the reader—that now, as I write of it my mouth waters at the very thought of matak, with its incomparably delicate taste of nuts and oysters mingled. And then it has this advantage over oysters, that the skin is as tough as India rubber, so masticate, so that the enjoyment can be protracted to any extent.

"Of vegetable food the primitive Greenlander used several sorts. I may mention angelica, dandelions, sorrel, crowberries, bilberries and different kinds of seaweed.

"One the greatest delicacies is the contents of a reindeer's stomach. If a Greenlander kills a reindeer and is unable to convey much of it home with him, he will, I believe, secure the stomach first of all, and the last thing an Eskimo lady enjoys upon her lover when he sets off reindeer hunting is that he must reserve for her the stomach of his prey.

"It is no doubt because they stand in need of vegetable food that they prize this so highly and also because it is in reality a very choice collection of the finest mosses and grasses which that gorgeous reindeer, has picked out for himself. It has undergone a sort of stewing in the process of semidigestion, while the gastric juice provides a somewhat sharp and aromatic sauce.

"Many will no doubt make a wry face at the thought of this dish, but they really need not do so. I have tasted it and found it most unostentatious, though somewhat sour, like fermented milk.
As a dish for special occasions it is served up with pieces of blubber and crowberries."

AN HOUR'S WALK.

You Would Hardly Think That That Meant Traveling 85,253 Miles.

Have you ever thought of the distance you travel while you are out on an hour's stroll? Possibly you walk three miles within the hour, but that does not by any means represent the distance you travel.
The earth turns on its axis every 24 hours. For the sake of round figures we will call the earth's circumference 24,000 miles, and so you must have traveled during the hour's stroll 1,000 miles in the axial turn of the earth.

But this is not all. The earth makes a journey around the sun every year, and a long but rapid trip it is. The distance of our planet from the sun we will put at 92,000,000 miles. This is the radius of the earth's orbit—half the diameter of the circle, as we call it.
The whole diameter is therefore 184,- 000,000 miles, and the circumference, being the diameter multiplied by 3.1416, is about 579,000,000.

This amazing distance the earth travels in its yearly journey, and dividing it by 365 we find the daily speed about 1,586,000. Then, to get the distance you travel around the sun during your hour's walk, divide again by 24, and the result is about 66,000 miles. But this is not the end of your hour's trip.
The sun, with its entire brood of planets, is moving in space at the rate of 100,000,000 miles a year. This is at the rate of a little more than 438,000 miles a day, or 18,250 miles an hour.
So, adding your three miles of leg travel to the hour's axial movement of the earth, this to the earth's orbital journey, and that again to the earth's excursion with the sun, and you find you have traveled in the hour 85,253 miles.
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

What the Vatican Contains.

On the whole, the Vatican may be divided into seven portions. These are the pontifical residence, the Sistine and Pauline chapels, the picture galleries, the library, the museums of sculpture and archaeology, the outbuildings, including the barracks of the Swiss guards, and, lastly, the gardens with the pope's casino. Of these the Sistine chapel, the galleries and museums and the library are incomparably the most important.

The name Sistine is derived from Sixtus IV. The library was founded by Nicholas V, whose love of books was almost equal to his passion for building.
The galleries are representative of Raphael's work, which predominates to such an extent that the paintings of almost all other artists are of secondary importance, precisely as Michael Angelo filled the Sistine chapel with himself. As for the museums, the objects they contain have been accumulated by many popes, but their existence ought perhaps to be chiefly attributed to Julius II and Leo X, the principal representatives of the Rovere and Medici families.—F.
Marion Crawford in Century.

Bank of England Clerks.

The patronage of the Bank of England belongs entirely to the directors, a clerk being appointed by each director in rotation until the vacancies are filled, with the exception of one clerkship in every seven, which is given to a son of one of the clerks of the establishment who has discharged his duties to the satisfaction of the directors.

SUMMONS.

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada, and for Washoe County.

The State of Nevada sends to Margaret Dodge greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you by defendant by Charles H. Dodge as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover a debt due by defendant to plaintiff, and continuing up to the date of filing the complaint herein, said debt being fifty dollars, without costs, and against the will and without the consent of plaintiff herein, all of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred,
and you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Reno, this 31st day of July, A. D. 1896, F. B. PORTER, Clerk.
